This club is for enthusiastic readers who want to make friends through their love of books! At weekly meetings we will share thoughts about some great literature, emphasizing social themes relevant to middle-graders. Works on our reading list may include, among others, Elsewhere, Wonder, Because of Mr. Terupt, and Becoming Naomi Leon, depending on interests of club members. The teacher will present background and questions to stimulate discussion, but the club will be reader-driven and reader-led. In order to have meaningful discussions, participants will be expected to complete assigned reading between meetings and to adhere to behavior requirements during meetings. Our purpose is to have fun talking about books and this group definitely is not intended as a tutoring or homework club. All are welcome. Membership is limited to 10 students, but if there is enough interest, new sections will be added.

Ring in the New Year with a Young Rembrandts class for your elementary student. Our budding artists will have the opportunity to flex their creative muscle as they take on fun, artistic challenges like our Jack Russell Terrier and even More Emojis in the month of January. February brings fun and culture into the classroom as our students learn about masquerade and dive into the mind of master artist Romero Britto. The month of March, get ready for some dinosaur-sized excitement as your elementary student recreates the ferocious T-Rex Young Rembrandts style! In the spring, if you think your student is a budding architect, he or she will love our city skyline lesson. Learning to develop and apply patterns is the focus too, as our artists venture out into the wild and create an intricate zebra drawing. Later, our students will learn about cool and warm colors with the patterned flowers lesson and realism with the London bridge and our art history lesson focusing on Gustav Klimt. Join us for the fun and adventure of these lessons and more. Sign up today!
